Welcome to ADVENTure 2011. We hope you'll have a great time. The goal of this weekend is to provide a safe, fun, and positive experience for all ADVENTure participants. As a youth participant, you play a valuable role in attaining this goal. Please read through this participation agreement.

While participating, participants shall:

- Respect the individual rights, privacy, safety, and property of others
- Avoid displays of overly affectionate behavior
- Not participate in obscene and/or discriminatory language or roughhousing
- Not be insubordinate to chaperones or the leader(s) in charge of the event
- Not possess or use weapons, alcoholic beverages, tobacco and/or illegal drugs at any event, activity, or meeting, or remain in the presence of individuals who possess or use these items
- Abide by all rules of the attended event, activity, or meeting
- Participate in activities to the best of his or her ability
- Notify a chaperone or staff person if he or she has concerns or medical needs during the ADVENTure 2011 Weekend
- Not engage in conversations or activities that are sexual in nature
- Not leave the event site(s) without permission from the chaperone, parent/guardian, and Event Chair
- Pay any costs related to damage or destruction of property that he or she incurs, including any property damage to other ADVENTure participants or to third parties. Such costs will be charged to the youth participant and/or their parents/guardians.

Disciplinary action/penalties and/or disciplinary action for infractions of this code of conduct may include any or all of the following:

- Sending youth home
- Barring that member from future Diocese of Saskatoon (Anglican) Youth activities
- Being held responsible for the cost of damages and repairs in the event of damage/destruction of property
- Releasing the member to the nearest law enforcement agency and/or the proper authorities for significant violations of the law

Team chaperones will notify parents of any actions taken.

By my signature below, I acknowledge receipt of this document and acknowledge that I have read and agree to abide by the guidelines in this document. I am aware that if I violate the agreement, the staff and volunteers may, at their sole discretion, terminate my participation, and my parent/guardian will be contacted and required to provide me with transportation home at my own expense. Additionally, I understand that the Diocese of Saskatoon (Anglican) works with partner organizations and at its discretion may report any disciplinary action to partner organizations.

1. a coming into place, view, or being; arrival: the advent of the holiday season.
2. (usually initial capital letter) the coming of Christ into the world.
3. (initial capital letter) the period beginning four Sundays before Christmas, observed in commemoration of the coming of Christ into the world.
4. (usually initial capital letter) Second Coming.

ad·ven·ture

Spelled [ad-ven-cher] noun, verb, -tured, -tur-ing.

1. an exciting or very unusual experience.
2. participation in exciting undertakings or enterprises: the spirit of adventure.

Mark 1:1-8

¹The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

²As it is written in the prophet Isaiah,

“See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
who will prepare your way;

³the voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.’”

⁴John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. ⁶Now John was clothed with camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷He proclaimed, “The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. ⁸I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”
