
TESTIMONIALS

I married a Muslim girl who converted to Christianity. My in-laws were searching for us to do an honor killing. My family was accepted as a refugee in Canada. We are very grateful to God for all His blessings upon us. We go to Church without fear and my kids are very happy to go to school in Canada.
Gill and Sana

My country, Eritrea, was fighting with Ethiopia from 1961 - 1991. There was no election process, no civil rights, and anyone could be jailed indefinitely. My family was under attack by our own government. We lived in fear and we travelled hours to reach Khortum Refugee Camp. We are so blessed and grateful to be in Canada, a safe country. We are heartily grateful for the sponsorship.
Afom & Senait

I was accused under blasphemy laws penal code 295-C in Pakistan. The punishment to the blasphemer is a death-sentence. I escaped to Sri Lanka with my four young girls. We were then sponsored to come to Canada. Here my girls go to school without any fear and we actively take part in Church activities.

WHO WE ARE

CAPC is a non-profit organization dedicated to facilitate legal assistance to Christians who are imprisoned unlawfully. CAPC also provides financial aid to overcome laws that are used to persecute Christians; for independent living and for promoting their faith.

We intend to release them, provide shelter and legal cost to settle their innocence, and after release settle them in their own country of origin. In some severe cases like Asia Bibi, Rimsha, Gul Sher and Anwar Masih, they were moved to a safe neighboring country and sponsored as an Asylum seeker or Refugee to Canada.

CAPC works to assist those grassroots Christians who are challenged on the front lines because of their faith. By drawing attention to this crisis, we hope that Islamic leaders may be more responsive to the request by world leaders to respect the rights and faiths of all their citizens.

WHAT WE DO

We provide financial aid to persecuted Christians so that they can obtain legal assistance for their release from imprisonment. We also work to provide financial aid to allow persecuted Christians to obtain independence in their home region; and/or secure passage to live in safety and freedom. If required, we provide sponsorship for persecuted Christians for resettlement in Canada.
